

Idaho Department of Labor
State of Idaho
Boise, Idaho

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO. 648

December 30, 2020

To: Administrators and Cost Center Managers
Subject: Minimum Qualifying Wages for Unemployment Insurance and
Minimum Weekly Benefit Amount

In conformity with Section 72-1367, Idaho Code, the minimum qualifying amount of covered wages necessary for an individual to be eligible for unemployment insurance benefits and the corresponding minimum weekly benefit amount are as follows:

State minimum wage	$ 7.25
Minimum high quarter wages	$ 1,872.00
Minimum weekly benefit amount	$ 72.00

Therefore, in accordance with the above-stated statute, it is hereby ordered that to be eligible for unemployment insurance for benefit years beginning on or after Jan. 1, 2010, an individual shall have the minimum qualifying amount of wages in covered employment of $1,872.00 in at least one calendar quarter of the base period, and the minimum weekly benefit amount shall be $72.00.

This Administrative Order is effective December 30, 2020, and supersedes Administrative Order No. 586, dated January 2, 2010, and any other orders or directives in conflict herewith.

Jani Revier, Director